Mr. HALL,

Your publiſhing the following Remarks, will oblige

Your moſt humble Servant,

J. H----s.

LIKE BEGETS LIKE.

I WAS in Hopes that, in Purſuance of the "cordial Admonition" which was lately given to a certain great Perſonage, he would have "compelled his calumniating Scriblers to deſiſt from farther Attempts to blaſt the Reputations of worthy Men," and that we ſhould thereby have had a Stop put to the blending perſonal Abuſe with our Conteſts about public Affairs. But, it ſeems, ſuch is their rancorous Inveteracy, that they are ſtill determined to omit no Opportunity of aſperſing the Characters of thoſe who "oppoſe their Meaſures."---- Mr. Galloway has long had the Honour of being an Object of Pr------ry Malice and Reſentment: An Honour which, it muſt be allowed, he has moſt deſervedly obtained, and which, in all Probability, he will long continue to merit and enjoy. Every Occaſion, however ſlight, is therefore eagerly taken, to caſt ſome Reflection upon that Gentleman, in order to weaken his Credit with his Countrymen and Fellow Citizens. To this Motive is owing the Piece inſerted in your Paper, No. 1890, relative to the Character given of his Speech, in the London Chronicle; on which, as no One has hitherto publiſhed any Remarks upon it, and as a Performance of that ſcandalous Nature ought not to paſs unnoticed, I muſt beg Leave to trouble you with the following Animadverſions.

I entirely agree with the Author, that "the comparative Merit of Mr. Dickinſon's printed Speech, and what "is called Mr. Galloway's, has long ago been determined "by the good People of this Province, who are certainly "very capable Judges in their own Affairs, and not to be "biaſſed by Authorities:" For though every Effort of AUTHORITY has been uſed by thoſe who ſtile themſelves the "wiſer and better Part of the Province," to bias thoſe who may be truly ſtiled the "good People of the Province," yet has it been without Effect, to the no ſmall Mortification of their Wiſdoms and Betterneſſes. The capable Judges (who are a great Majority of the ſubſtantial Freeholders) on comparing what was urged by Mr. D. againſt applying for a Royal Government, with Mr. G's Arguments in Anſwer thereto, have determined in Favour of the latter; and have, with their Repreſentatives, accordingly petitioned His Majeſty to take the Province under His immediate Protection.

Before I proceed to the next Paragraph, I think it neceſſary to take Notice of an Expreſſion of our Author's, which has been frequently repeated by the Writers for the Pr-------ry Faction. Conſcious of the Merit of Mr. G's Speech, they would willingly have it thought not to be his; and therefore, whenever they have Occaſion to mention that Performance, they ſay, "the Speech CALLED Mr. G's, or the pretended Speech." Now, whether the Speech was or was not delivered by Mr. G. in the Houſe, or whether it was wrote by him or any One elſe, after the Debates were over, is a Matter of no great Conſequence to the Public; but as it is of ſome Import to that Gentleman's Reputation, it is juſt that a Paper he formerly publiſhed on this Head ſhould be likewiſe printed in the News-Papers, eſpecially as they have ſo often, and ſo lately, contained the above mentioned injurious Expreſſion.----The Paper is as follows, viz.

Philadelphia, September 29, 1764.

UPON peruſing Mr. Dickinſon's Reply to my Speech, lately publiſhed, I find it therein aſſerted, that I have been "hardy enough to obtrude on the Public a "pretended Speech, of which I never ſpoke one Sentence "in the Houſe, and that he was not ſurpriſed to find, that "I who had treated my own Character with ſuch Li"cence, ſhould not be unſparing of others." In Vindication of my Reputation, thus injuriouſly aſperſed, I think it neceſſary to make the following Remarks.

In the Advertiſement preceding this pretended Speech (as Mr. Dickinſon is pleaſed to ſtyle it) it is alledged, that it was "in Subſtance the ſame" that was offered by me in Anſwer to what he ſaid in Aſſembly, "taken from my ſhort Notes, and put into Order." Thoſe Notes were taken from Mr. Dickinſon's Speech, when read in the Houſe, and from what he ſaid the next Day, as he endeavoured to recapitulate that which he had read the Day before: And it was from theſe Notes I anſwered the Objections he had made againſt a Change of Government.---A Peruſal of them will clearly evince what I have aſſerted, and Mr. Dickinſon has ſo fully denied---viz. That the Speech publiſhed is "in Subſtance the ſame that was offered by me in Anſwer to him in the Houſe." I have ſhewn theſe Notes to a Number of Gentlemen, and will chearfully produce them to any others who ſhall be ſo kind as to call on me for that Purpoſe.---But ſhould any further Proof of this Fact be neceſſary, the following Certificate, ſigned by ſeveral Gentlemen of known Credit and Integrity, Members of Aſſembly, preſent at the Time it happened, will do ample Juſtice to my Reputation, and Place Mr. Dickinſon's Charge againſt me of impoſing a pretended Speech on the Public, in the Light it ought to ſtand.

Upon peruſing a Pamphlet lately printed and publiſhed by William Bradford, called, "A Reply to a Piece called "the Speech of Joſeph Galloway, Eſq; by John Dickinſon, "Eſq; in the ſecond Page we find it thus aſſerted, That "Mr. Galloway was hardy enough to obtrude on the Public a pretended Speech, of which he never ſpoke one "Sentence in the Houſe." In Juſtice to the Character of the ſaid Joſeph Galloway, Eſq; we the Subſcribers, Members of the General Aſſembly of Pennſylvania, do declare and certify, that we have peruſed the Speech of the ſaid Joſeph Galloway, lately printed and publiſhed, and do think it, upon the beſt of our Memories and Recollection, to be materially and in Subſtance the ſame with that by him delivered in the Houſe of Aſſembly, in Anſwer to one delivered by the ſaid John Dickinſon. Given under our Hands, September 21, 1764. Henry Krewſon, Abraham Chapman, Emanuel Carpenter, Samuel Rhodes, Giles Knight, George Aſhbridge, Joſeph Fox (preſent Speaker) William Smith, James Melvin, John Hughes, Rowland Evans, William Rodman, Iſaac Pearſon, Samuel Foulke.

To which I beg Leave to add, that the Method I have taken to introduce the Speech to the Public, is the ſame by which the Speeches of the Members of both Houſes of Parliament have been publiſhed.---They deliver them Ore Tenus. The Subſtance of them has been taken down in ſhort Notes, and afterwards put into Order, ſometimes by the Members themſelves, and ſometimes by the Publiſhers, or the Perſons by them employed. Having followed ſo unexceptionable an Example in laying Truths of the utmoſt Importance before my Conſtituents, I could not ſuſpect that I had afforded Mr. Dickinſon ſufficient Foundation to traduce my Reputation in the Manner he has done; or that by thus diſcharging my Duty to a People who have ſo long given me the fulleſt Proof of their Confidence, I ſhould in any Degree injure my Character.

Whether what I have done is right, or Mr. Dickinſon's Charge againſt me is groundleſs, the Impartial are to determine. JOSEPH GALLOWAY.

Hence it appears that the Speech Mr. G. publiſhed was in Subſtance the ſame he delivered in the Houſe, Ore Tenus, from the Notes he took when Mr. D. read his Eſſay in the Houſe. I call it his Eſſay, becauſe I cannot ſee with what Propriety a Piece which he had been for ſome Weeks compoſing and correcting, and then read to the Houſe, as a School-boy would read his Exerciſe, can be called a SPEECH.

But to proceed. It is next aſſerted that "Mr. Galloway, "or ſome of his Friends, had, by way of Character of his "Speech, been pleaſed to reprint a Bookſeller's Puff or Ad"vertiſement of it." This Aſſertion is no leſs unkind than unjuſt. The Advertiſement was publiſhed intirely without his Knowledge, and when he was at Cheſter: And the Motive which induced a Friend of his to have it publiſhed, was not by way of Character of the Speech, for its Character was already fully eſtabliſhed by thoſe "capable Judges, "the good People of this Province;" but it was to gratify a Number of Perſons, who wanted to know what was ſaid of that Performance in the London Chronicle, and could not otherwiſe obtain a Peruſal of it, there being only one of thoſe Papers in Town.---It was publiſhed, however, without any Introduction or Comment reflecting upon any Perſon whatever; and therefore if Mr. D. or any others of the Pr------ry Party, thought it neceſſary to publiſh the Monthly Reviewers Puff of the Thing called his Speech, they ſhould have acted in like Manner, and have taken ſome other Opportunity of indulging the Malevolence of their Diſpoſitions. For the future, I would recommend to them to take Pattern by that innocent inoffenſive Puffer, Dr. Saw Duſt, who has, in the ſame News Paper, given us, in a ſimple Decoction, the Virtues of his worthy Patron. It is true that the Doctor has ſtolen the Encomiums on his Patron's Benevolence and Quackery from Jack Retort, but Jack durſt not put in his Claim for the ſtolen Goods, leſt, as lately happened, ſome new made, deep read, Ald------n, ſhould take it in his Head, according to the Example of Pope's Juſtice, Sir Godfrey,

To ſend the Thief that ſtole the Goods away,
And puniſh him that put them in his Way.

If Mr. Galloway had been really diſpoſed to have had his Speech puffed to the Publick, he had no Occaſion to have Recourſe to Puffs of Bookſellers or Reviewers; for he might, after the Example of a very learned Doctor, have done all his own Puffing his own ſelf, as appears by the following Extract from the New-York Gazette of May 2, 1757, viz.

"A true Copy of a Letter from Mr. Smith, Proveſt of the Academy of Philadelphia, to Col. Prevoſt.---SIR, I incloſe you a SERMON, which I hope you'll think deſerving of your attentive Peruſal; and I ſhall be proud if it meets with the Approbation of ſo good a Judge: I flatter myſelf, you'll find it full of a manly Fire; clear in the Expreſſion, the Language and the Reaſoning forcive:----If you ſhould think ſo, perhaps you may judge it proper to get a Number of Copies into your Battalion; as I am perſuaded nothing would give you greater Pleaſure, than to ſee them acting from a Principle of Conſcience, animated by a ſublime Enthuſiaſm for the Juſtice of their Cauſe.------I ſhall be proud to hear from you ſoon, and to ſend you any Number of Copies you may recommend to your Officers, &c. I am, Philadelphia, 20th April, 1757. Your obedient Servant, WILLIAM SMITH."

This, with ſome other Pieces of Fuſtian Self-Commendation, which the learned Doctor has formerly exhibited, naturally puts one in Mind of the rhodomontade Speech of a certain Caſtilian Captain, who was remarkable for never talking like what he was, but what he fancied himſelf to be. "When I deſcend into myſelf (ſays the "Captain) and contemplate my moſt terrible, horrible "Terribility, I can hardly contain myſelf within myſelf; "for I believe that all the public Notaries in Biſcay are not "able in three Years to ſum up the Account of thoſe mi"raculous Atchievements, which this Toledo Blade, this "Scourge of Lutherans, this Converter of Pagans, this "Peopler of Church-yards, &c. has performed. To con"clude, I am that invincible Slaughterer of Mankind, "that tranſcendant great Captain Baſaliſco Eſpheramonte, "Generaliſſimo of all the Militia of Europe, I am HE "who uſes to ſwallow Mountains, to breathe out Whirl"winds, to ſpit Targets, and ſweat Quickſilver."

To return to our Author: He tells us that the Reviewers Account of Mr. Dickinſon's Speech is "more diſintereſted and honourable," than that given of Mr. Galloway's in the Chronicle; for the Reviewers are a "Sett of Critics, and "Men of Learning, who have long ſuſtained the arduous "Employment or Province of giving a Monthly Review of "all new Books publiſhed in England."----But give me Leave to aſk, why is the Reviewers Account to be deemed more diſintereſted and honourable than the other? Will our Author ſay, that he does not know of any Perſon in this City, who has heretofore prevailed on the Reviewers to publiſh his own puffing Accounts of his own abſurd Writings in the Reviews? Will he ſay, that he does not know, that the ſame Perſon has likewiſe boaſted he wrote the Account of the Hiſtorical Review of the Conſtitution of the Government of Pennſylvania, which is publiſhed in the Critical Review?------an Account replete with Falſhood and Miſrepreſentation, and conſequently characteriſtic of its Author. Will he deny that thoſe ſame Critics and Men of Learning are, for the moſt Part, North-Country Schoolmaſters and Garretteers, Hirelings to Bookſellers, who, for leſs than a Crown, would conſent to the puffing of even S---b's Sermons and D-------n's pretended Speech? Nay, has he not often heard that no Man of Senſe in England thinks either the better or worſe of any Performance for its Character in the Review; and that the Reviewers very ſeldom read much more than the Title Page and Index of the Books they affect to criticiſe? If he has not, I have. But, perhaps it may be ſaid that, as I have never been out of America, it is poſſible I may have been miſinformed in theſe Matters. To this I anſwer, that the Reviewing Buſineſs is repreſented in the ſame Light, in ſeveral Pieces wrote and publiſhed in England; and that it has even become a Subject of Ridicule for the Stage, as appears by the Gentleman's Magazine for Auguſt laſt, in which is given ſome Account of a new Comedy by Mr. Foote. One of the Characters in this Comedy is Papillion, a Footman, "who gives, ſays Mr. Urban, a very humorous and ſpirited Account of himſelf to the following Effect.---Having had ſome Education, and no Money, he became Uſher to a Boarding-School in Yorkſhire; being weary of the Drudgery and Obſcurity of that Situation, he came up to Town, and got recommended to the Monthly Review; his Department was the Belle-Lettre, for, ſays he, "Phyſick, "Divinity, and the Mathematicks, my Miſtreſs (the Book"ſeller's Wife) managed herſelf, and in Obedience to the "Caprice and Commands of my Maſter, I condemned "Books I never read, and applauded the Fidelity of a Tran"ſlation, without underſtanding one Syllable of the Original." But this Employment would not anſwer, his Wages being only Four Shillings a Week, and Small Beer."

Such, it ſeems, are our Critics and Men of Learning! If therefore the Pr-------rs ſhould put themſelves to the farther Expence of having the Thing called Mr. Dickinſon's REPLY to Mr. Galloway's Speech, publiſhed in England, and puffed by the Reviewers, that Gentleman, or whoever may be the Author of that Curioſity, ſhould not, methinks, ſet a higher Value than a Mug of Small Beer upon their Encomiums, even though they ſhould happen to be in the following Strain, viz.

----In our Review for October, we had Occaſion to ſpeak of Mr. D. as an Orator. He now makes his Appearance in the "arduous Employment or Province of" a Critic. In both Capacities he equally excites our Admiration. His Criticiſms "are many, and to us (in one Senſe of the "Word) WEIGHTY." But though "we cannot be ſup"poſed to be competent Judges," yet "we will venture "to rank this Performance with the many noble Pieces of "Criticiſm which have appeared" in our Reviews.----The Author ſets out with telling us, that "two Reaſons in"duce him to addreſs the Public at preſent: The one is, "to clear a few plain Arguments, on a Matter of the ut"moſt Conſequence;" which to be ſure was extreamly neceſſary, as the plainer any Argument is, the more it ſtands in Need of clearing.---We have heard that a certain Biſhop, well known in the learned World, and particularly diſtinguiſhed for his critical Abilities, ſhould ſay, after peruſing Mr. D's Speech, that it was a very florid Harangue, but had NO ARGUMENT in it. However juſt that Obſervation may be, with Regard to the Speech, we will venture to ſay, that his Lordſhip cannot make that Objection to the Reply. He and all Mankind muſt, on Peruſal, allow, that it contains at leaſt ONE ARGUMENT, and that ſo very plain, that nothing can render it more clear; namely, "That Mr. Galloway cannot with any Propriety be termed a LONG Supporter of the Rights and Privileges of the People, becauſe he is a---SHORT Man."---Of this Kind, to uſe Mr. Dickinſon's own Words, "are his Arguments, and the "Tendency of them. Arguments!---yielding ſuch am"ple Room for the Entertainment of the Public, that we "hope ſome Gentleman, who has more Leiſure than we "have, will divert the World with the Strictures upon "them they deſerve."----We ſhall conclude our Obſervations on this Article, with doing the Author the Juſtice to acknowledge that he has, throughout his Performance, diſcovered Qualities which fully intitle him to the Appellation of a True Critic, according to Swift's Definition of that Character. "A true Critic (ſays that facetious "Writer) in the Peruſal of a Book, is like a Dog at a "Feaſt, whoſe Thoughts and Stomach are wholly ſet upon "what Gueſts fling away, and conſequently is apt to ſnarl "moſt, when there are the feweſt Bones." Dec. 19. Letters from Algiers, of the 24th of October, give an account, that Mr. Harriſon, the Commodore of the Engliſh fleet in the Mediterranean, came into that port the 2d of September, to demand ſatisfaction for an inſult offered to the flag of Great-Britain by the Algerine corſairs; and that the Bey having anſwered Mr. Harriſon, that the affair was then in train of accommodation with the Miniſtry of London, the Commodore put to ſea again 7 days after; but that on the 7th of October following, an Engliſh frigate arrived, to make a freſh demand of ſatisfaction of the Bey, announcing at the ſame time, that if it was not ſpeedily given, 8 Engliſh men of war, and 3 bomb-ketches, would make their appearance in the port of Algiers. Jenks, of the Medway, has landed all his ſeamen and marines at Calcutta, for the defence of that place: There is ſome talk that our garriſon is to be ſent thither, but this we are not certain of at preſent."

Dec. 26. It is ſaid the ſubſtance of the laſt diſpatches to the Earl of Hertford at Verſailles, relate chiefly to the ſuſpected deſigns of the French on the coaſt of Guiney, founded on certain accounts having been received that a fleet of men of war and tranſports are preparing to ſail on an expedition to that part of the world early in the ſpring.

Private letters from France mention, that a new Treaty of Commerce has juſt been concluded with the Court of Madrid, whereby the ſubjects of the former are to enjoy an excluſive privilege of trade to the South Seas, and other Spaniſh ſettlements in America, on paying certain duties agreed upon. It is ſaid that this treaty is far more beneficial to France, than any hitherto ſubſiſting between the two nations.

We are told, that ſome Gentlemen concerned in the iron mines in America, are about to contract with the Government for what cannon and other ordnance ſtores may, for the future, be wanted for the uſe of the iſlands on the Britiſh Continent, from founderies of that country; the ſcheme is ſaid to be vaſtly beneficial, and will be a ſaving to the nation to a large amount.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to grant Letters-Patent, appointing the Right Hon. John Earl of Hyndford to be Vice-Admiral of Scotland, in the room of the Right Hon. James Earl of Findlater, deceaſed.

His Majeſty has alſo been pleaſed to appoint the Right Hon. Hugh Earl of Northumberland (Lord Lieutenant of Ireland) to be Vice-Admiral of all America.

Dec. 28. Orders are ſent to the different yards, for the ſhips that are to be employed as cruizers on different ſtations, to be fitted out for Sea with all expedition.

The laſt letters from Holland mention, that accounts had been received of great numbers of European Officers having deſerted from the ſervice of Coſſim Ali Cawn, and gone over to the Engliſh. It is added, that thoſe gentlemen had made ſome important and uſeful diſcoveries.

Some private letters from Liſbon mention that the Court of Portugal, far from being ſatisfied with the reaſons alledged by his Catholick Majeſty's Miniſters, for the late warlike preparations of Spain, are indefatigable, both in the cabinet and field, to render their ſuſpected views abortive; more eſpecially as it appears theſe preparations are chiefly carried on in the moſt critical frontier paſſes, and greatly remote from ports the propereſt to effect any embarkation againſt Barbary.

This week the expence of importing timber from North America, for national uſe, has been calculated, and we hear ſeveral large maſt ſhips are ordered to be built in New-England, for the Government's ſervice.

It is now ſaid, the money ariſing from the ſale of crown lands in the new American acquiſitions, will be ſufficient to anſwer all the exigencies of the enſuing year.

We are informed an eſtimate of the civil eſtabliſhment of all the Britiſh North American Colonies on the Continent, is now preparing to be laid before the Parliament, previous to ſome important regulations intended to take place in theſe Provinces.

Dec. 29. Letters from Madrid mention, that the Earl of Rochford has remonſtrated very warmly againſt the practice of allowing the Spaniſh Governors in the Weſt-Indies to grant commiſſions to private adventurers acting in the nature of Guarda Coſtas. As theſe ſhips are ſeverally fitted out on the principle of no purchaſe no pay, and their crews a motly gang of Ruffians, the very dregs of war, it is not to be wondered if they commit acts of piracy on defenceleſs merchantmen, in order to indemnify the expence of the cruize.

We are informed the orders lately diſpatched to the Britiſh Commanders on the Weſt-India ſtation, have been in conſequence of advice received that the French are forming ſome deſigns on the Spaniſh continent of America, ſaid to be prejudicial to the intereſts of Great Britain.

Very large orders were received by the laſt mails to purchaſe property in the public Funds.

Dec. 31. We hear the Eaſt-India Company have given orders to fortify the ſmall iſland Elephanta, near Bombay, which is naturally a place of ſtrength, and is to be employed as a magazine.

It is reported, that a draught will be made from the Penſioners of Greenwich Hoſpital, in order to do duty on board the guard-ſhips, that the able-bodied ſeamen, now employed there, may be turned over to thoſe ſhips which are fitting out for ſervice.

We hear application is going to be made to Parliament, for obtaining a certain bounty per ton on ſhips fitted out from the Britiſh colonies, for carrying on a whale fiſhery in the North-American ſeas.

Letters from Madrid adviſe, that five ſhips of war of the line are fitting out at Ferrol and Carthagena, deſigned for an expedition into the South Seas.

Letters from Liſbon expreſs great uneaſineſs about a man of war that has been ſome time expected from Rio-Janeiro, with ſeven millions of cruzadoes in ſpecie on board, and which is feared to be loſt.

By the laſt letters from Liſbon, the differences between that court and Spain ſeem rather to increaſe, upon which account warlike preparations are carrying on with great ardour on both ſides.

They write from Portſmouth, that all the ſhips of war appointed for their ſeveral ſtations in America, are now compleatly rigged, manned and victualled, and only wait for ſailing orders. They amount in the whole to 15 ſail.

BOSTON, March 18.

Friday laſt Capt. Atwood arrived here, in 5 Days from Halifax, by whom we learn that Capt. M'Phillimy's Veſſel was ſtove to Pieces, and moſt of the Cargoe loſt. Capt. Atwood alſo informs, that about a Fortnight before he ſailed, the following ſorrowful Accident befel three young Men belonging to the Town, viz. They had been to Tangier, about 16 Leagues from Halifax, in an open Shallop, and on their Return, were driven by a violent Gale of Wind on a Reef of Rocks, near a Place called the Devil's Iſland, and it being extreme cold, they all periſhed. One of them (Brother to Mr. John Fillis, formerly of this Town, Merchant, but now of Halifax) was afterwards found in the Boat, with Tears froze from his Eye-lids down the Side of his Cheeks; another was found on the Reef froze to Death, in a praying Poſture, and it is ſuppoſed the third was drowned.---Their Bodies were ſoon after taken up, and decently buried at Halifax.

NEW-LONDON, March 15.

Laſt Sunday arrived here from Anguilla, in 22 Days, the Sloop Sall, Capt. Hugh Thompſon, and informs, that he ſailed from this Port the 23d of December laſt, with a Cargoe of Horſes, bound for Barbados, and that two Days after, they met with a moſt violent Gale of Wind that twice overſet the Veſſel, and obliged them to throw over their Horſes. The Gale continued 10 Days; in the Height of it they ſaw a Schooner of about 45 Tons, with a white Bottom, which they judged to be a Wreck.

The following Veſſels were arrived at Barbados, that had ſuffered in the above Storm, viz. Capt. Riſe, in a Brig from New-Haven, who had been overſet, and loſt 18 Horſes. Capt. Nath. Doane, loſt two Horſes. Capt. Rich. Hall, loſt two Horſes. Capt. Hall, loſt 7-8ths of his Cargoe. A new Brig, from Rhode-Iſland, which had been overſet 24 Hours, and loſt one Maſt. A Ship of 300 Tons, bound from Madeira to New-York, but drove off the Coaſt when within 50 Leagues of the Hook, was overſet in the Storm, and received conſiderable Damage; and another Ship of 500 Tons, from the Coaſt of Africa, bound to Virginia, but drove off the Coaſt. Capt. Fanning, from this Port, had arrived without receiving any conſiderable Damage, except himſelf and ſome of his People being much froze in going off the Coaſt. A Schooner of 45 Tons, bound from Liverpool, in Nova-Scotia, to Halifax, with only two Men in her, was drove off the Coaſt, and arrived at St. Martins; they loſt their Rudder in the above Storm, and was ſo leaky, they were compelled to keep moſt of the Time at the Pumps.

NEW-YORK, March 28.

The Schooner Newport Packet, Captain Johnſon, bound from Newport to New-York, with a conſiderable Number of Paſſengers on board, among whom were ſeveral Gentlemen and Ladies, was in the bad Weather, about one o'Clock on Saturday Morning laſt, driven aſhore on Long-Iſland, not far from Satucket, where all the People were for many Hours in the utmoſt Danger of being loſt, but after being a long Time in the Water, and ſuffering great Hardſhip and Diſtreſs, they were happily all put ſafe on Shore, by a Whale-Boat, on Long-Iſland, from whence ſome of the Paſſengers came to Town on Tueſday laſt.

PHILADELPHIA, April 4.

By Captain Watts from Edenton, in North-Carolina, we have Advice, that Captain Pindar, in a Ship, and Captain Morton, in a Schooner, both for this Port, were drove aſhore in the late Snow Storm, in Beacon Iſland Road, near Ocracock Bar; the Ship and Cargoe intirely loſt; (but the Schooner was got off, and is arrived here.) That Captain Norton, in a Schooner bound to Antigua, was drove aſhore at the ſame time, when both Veſſel and Cargoe were loſt: And that a Sloop for Providence was likewiſe aſhore, but it was thought ſhe would be got off again.---A Snow for Rhode-Iſland, and a Sloop for Boſton, rode out the Gale.---A Ship from London for Edenton, loſt her Foremaſt, Mizenmaſt, and Maintopmaſt.

From Wilmington, in North-Carolina, we learn, that Lord Adam Gordon was there, and was quickly to ſet out for the Northward, in order to take a Survey of all the Fortifications on the Continent---And that Capt. Oram, in a Schooner from that Port for Bear Inlet, was loſt near ſaid Inlet, and all the Crew, except a Boy, periſhed.

From the Havannah we have Advice, that the Granville Packet, Captain Collet, from Penſacola for Auguſtine, was loſt off Cape-Florida: And that a Sloop belonging to Portſmouth, from Jamaica to the Havannah, was alſo loſt, about four Leagues Weſt of the Havannah, and the Captain drowned.

We hear that in the late Snow Storm an Oyſter Boat, fiſhing on the New Bank, was loſt, and five Men that belonged to her drowned. One of them was found in the Cabin, and the Clothes of the other four, who, it is thought, had ſtripped, in order to endeavour to ſwim aſhore.

Tueſday laſt a Boat coming down Schuylkill, overſet at the Falls, four Miles from Town, when two Men were drowned.

Arrived from this Port. Captain Friend in London, with whom went Paſſenger the Honourable JAMES HAMILTON, Esq; our late Governor----Captains Blythe and Harkies, at Briſtol---And Captain Johnſon, at Lochendall.

College of Philadelphia, April 4, 1765.

For the BENEFIT of the

BOYS and GIRLS CHARITY-SCHOOL,

ON Wedneſday Evening next, there will be a PERFORMANCE of SOLEMN MUSIC, vocal and inſtrumental, in the COLLEGE-HALL, under the Direction of Mr. BREMNER. The vocal Parts chiefly by young Gentlemen educated in this Seminary, and the Words ſuited to the Place and Occaſion, being paraphraſed from the Prophets, and other Places of Scripture, upon the Plan of the muſical Performances in Cathedrals, &c. for public Charities in England.

The CHORUS, and other ſublimer Paſſages of the MUSIC, will be accompanied by the ORGAN; and the Intervals filled up with a few Orations by ſome of the Students.

It is hoped that the Merit of the Performance, as well as the Nature of the CHARITY, by which ſeveral Hundreds of deſtitute Youth, for more than 15 Years paſt, have at a great Expence received the Benefits of Education, and been rendered uſeful to the Community, will intitle this Deſign to a general Countenance.

The Hall will be properly illuminated, and the Muſic ſo diſpoſed, that the Galleries and Body of the Houſe will be equally advantageous for hearing. The Performance will begin preciſely at Six o'Clock, and there will be no Admittance but by Ticket, and through the great South Door, which will be opened at FIVE. Any Perſons deſiring a printed Copy of the Words to be ſung, may have the ſame gratis, on Delivery of their Tickets at the Door, and Care will be taken that the greateſt Order be preſerved.

Tickets, at ONE DOLLAR each, to be had of Mr. Kinnerſley, Mr. Bremner, Mr. Hall, and Mr. Bradford, or by ſending to any of the Truſtees or Maſters.

WHEREAS ſome evil minded malicious Perſon or Perſons did, in the Night of the 1ſt Inſtant, pull down and break the Sign or Show-board of the Poſt Office in this Town. As this is the ſecond Time his Majeſty's Office has been in this Manner inſulted, and as ſuch baſe Actions are intirely inconſiſtent with the Rules of civil Society, it ſhews the Author of it to be a Perſon of a low abandoned Principle. Therefore that the Perpetrators or Abettors may be found out, and be properly expoſed, and ſuch Practices ſuppreſſed, the Subſcriber offers a Reward of FIVE POUNDS to any Perſon or Perſons, who will diſcover him or them, ſo that he or they may be dealt with according to their Deſerts.

PETER FRANKLIN.

By the Two Brothers, Captain SMITH, arrived at New-York from Briſtol, and Captain HUNTER, arrived at Boſton from London, we have the following Advices, viz.

LONDON, January 10.

THIS Day his Majeſty went to the Houſe of Peers with the uſual State, accompanied by his Grace the Duke of Rutland, Maſter of the Horſe, and the Right Hon. the Earl of Pomfret, and opened the Seſſion with the following moſt gracious Speech from the Throne.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Situation of Affairs, both at Home and Abroad, has enabled me to allow you that Receſs which has been uſual in Times of public Tranquility.

I have now the Satisfaction to inform you, that I have agreed with My good Brother the King of Denmark, to cement the Union which has long ſubſiſted between the Two Crowns, by the Marriage of the Prince Royal of Denmark with My Siſter the Princeſs Caroline Matilda, which is to be ſolemnized as ſoon as their reſpective Ages will permit.

I obſerve with Pleaſure, that the Events which have happened in the Courſe of laſt Year, give Us Reaſon to hope for the Duration of that Peace which has been ſo happily eſtabliſhed, and which it is My Reſolution ſtrictly to maintain. The Courts of France and Spain have given Me freſh Aſſurances of their good Diſpoſitions. The future Quiet of the Empire has been confirmed by the unanimous Choice of a Succeſſor to the Imperial Dignity, and the peaceable Election of the King of Poland has prevented thoſe fatal Conſequences which, upon ſimilar Occaſions, have ſo frequently been deſtructive to the Repoſe of Europe. I am happy, therefore, to meet My Parliament at a Time, when no Foreign Diſturbances interrupt their Conſultations for the internal good Order, and Proſperity of My Kingdoms.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I ſhall aſk of you, for the current Service of the Year, no other Supplies than ſuch as are neceſſary for thoſe Eſtabliſhments which have already met with your Approbation; and I will order the proper Eſtimates for this Purpoſe to be laid before you.

I muſt, however, earneſtly recommend to you the Continuance of that Attention, which you have hitherto ſhewn, for the Improvement of the public Revenue, and the Diminution of the National Debt. For theſe deſirable and neceſſary Ends, I am perſuaded that you will purſue every proper Meaſure, which the State of My Dominions, and the Circumſtances of the Times, may require.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Experience which I have had of your former Conduct, makes Me rely on your Wiſdom and Firmneſs, in promoting that Obedience to the Laws, and Reſpect to the Legiſlative Authority of this Kingdom, which is eſſentially neceſſary for the Safety of the Whole; and in eſtabliſhing ſuch Regulations as may beſt connect and ſtrengthen every Part of My Dominions, for their mutual Benefit and Support.

The Affection which I bear to My People excites My earneſt Wiſhes, that every Seſſion of Parliament may be diſtinguiſhed by ſome Plans for the Publick Advantage, and for their Relief from thoſe Difficulties which an expenſive War has brought upon them. My Concurrence and Encouragement ſhall never be wanting where their Welfare is concerned: And I truſt that, for the Attainment of that great Object, you will proceed with Temper, Unanimity, and Diſpatch."

The Humble ADDRESS of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Soverzign,

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return Your Majeſty our humble Thanks for Your moſt gracious Speech from the Throne.

We acknowledge, with Gratitude, Your Majeſty's Goodneſs, in acquainting us with your having agreed to a Marriage between the Prince Royal of Denmark and Your Majeſty's Siſter, the Princeſs Caroline Matilda, to be ſolemnized as ſoon as their reſpective Ages will permit. And we beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty of our entire Satisfaction in the Choice of this Alliance; which, under the Bleſſing of Providence, cannot fail of cementing and ſtrengthening the Union, which has ſo long ſubſiſted between the Crowns of Great-Britain and Denmark, and thereby conducing to the Support of the Proteſtant Cauſe.

We ſincerely rejoice in thoſe Events of the laſt Year, which ſeem to promiſe a Continuance of the Peace ſo happily eſtabliſhed; and we receive with Gratitude the Declaration which Your Majeſty is graciouſly pleaſed to make, of Your Reſolution ſtrictly to maintain it. And we beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that, as the preſent undiſturbed State of Affairs Abroad, affords ſo favourable an Opportunity for the Deliberations of Your Parliament on ſuch Objects, as may be moſt conducive to the internal good Order and Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms, nothing ſhall be wanting in Care and Attention, on our Part, which may promote the Welfare and Honour of our Country.

Permit us, Sir, to offer to Your Majeſty our humble Acknowledgments, for the gracious Approbation which Your Majeſty is pleaſed to declare of our former Conduct; and to give Your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances, that we will firmly perſiſt in exerting our zealous Endeavours to promote due Obedience to the Laws, and Reverence to the Legiſlative Authority of this Kingdom; and to eſtabliſh ſuch Regulations, as ſhall appear to be moſt conducive to the mutual Benefit and Support of all Your Majeſty's Dominions.

With Hearts full of Duty and Affection, we offer our unfeigned Thanks to Your Majeſty, for Your paternal Care, and tender Concern for the Difficulties which have been brought on Your Subjects by a long and burdenſome War; and for Your Royal Wiſhes, that Your Parliament may take every Occaſion for their Relief. Animated with theſe Sentiments, we aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will proceed with that Temper, Unanimity and Diſpatch, which Your Majeſty is pleaſed to recommend to us in the Purſuit of thoſe great and important Objects, to which Your Majeſty has directed our Attention.

His MAJESTY's moſt gracious Anſwer.

My Lords,

I Thank you for this dutiful and affectionate Addreſs. The Satisfaction which you expreſs on the intended Marriage of my Siſter, the Princeſs Caroline Matilda, is particularly agreeable to me. And I accept, with Pleaſure, the Aſſurances you give me of your zealous Endeavours for the Advancement of the Proſperity of my Kingdoms, and the Happineſs of my People, which I ſhall ever have moſt ſincerely at Heart.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Houſe of Commons to the KING.

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return Your Majeſty the moſt humble Thanks of this Houſe, for Your Moſt Gracious Speech from the Throne.

Permit us, at the ſame Time, to offer to Your Majeſty our dutiful Congratulations upon the Marriage agreed to be ſolemnized between the Prince Royal of Denmark, and her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Caroline Matilda, as ſoon as their reſpective Ages will permit; which happy Union cannot but be moſt pleaſing to Your faithful Commons, as it muſt tend to cement and ſtrengthen the ancient Alliance between the Crowns of Great-Britain and Denmark, and thereby add Security to the Proteſtant Religion.

We beg Leave alſo to declare our Satisfaction at thoſe Events of the laſt Year, which promiſe the Continuance of the Peace ſo happily eſtabliſhed and maintained by Your Majeſty's wiſe and ſteady Conduct, and to expreſs our Hopes, that the freſh Aſſurances which have been given by the Courts of France and Spain, of their good Diſpoſitions, the unanimous Choice of a Succeſſor to the Imperial Throne, and the undiſturbed Election of the King of Poland, will ſecure and confirm the general Tranquility of Europe. In this Situation, we think it our Duty to give our particular Attention to ſuch Regulations, as will moſt effectually promote the internal good Order and Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms.

Your Majeſty may be aſſured that we will, with Chearfulneſs and Diſpatch, raiſe ſuch Supplies as ſhall be found neceſſary for the current Service of the Year. And, being thoroughly ſenſible of Your Majeſty's paternal Concern for the Relief and Welfare of Your People, in recommending to us the Improvement of the public Revenue, and the Diminution of the national Debt, on which the future Safety of Great-Britain muſt depend, we will apply ourſelves, with the utmoſt Zeal and Aſſiduity, to carry into Execution every proper Meaſure which may contribute to theſe great and ſalutary Purpoſes, and which the State of Your Majeſty's Dominions, and the Circumſtances of the Times, ſhall require.

We acknowledge, with the livelieſt Gratitude, the Gracious Expreſſions of Your Majeſty's tender Affection, and of Your conſtant Care for the mutual Benefit and Support of all Your Subjects. And we aſſure Your Majeſty, that, animated with theſe Sentiments, we will endeavour to deſerve the Confidence which Your Majeſty is pleaſed to repoſe in us, by purſuing every Plan which ſhall appear to us to be calculated for the public Advantage; and will proceed therein with that Temper and Firmneſs which will beſt conciliate and enſure due Submiſſion to the Laws, and Reverence to the Legiſlative Authority of Great-Britain."

Jan. 22. We hear that the Route of ſome Men of War lately intended for the Leeward Iſlands, is now altered; and that they will immediately proceed to cruiſe in the Gulph between Cape Florida and the Mouth of the Miſſiſippi, in order to watch the Motions of the Spaniards, who, according to Advice received, are ſhortly to viſit thoſe Seas.

Monday diſpatches were ſent off to his Excellency George Johnſtone, Eſq; Governor of Weſt-Florida, on Affairs of Importance.

Yeſterday morning Mr. John Williams, Bookſeller, in Fleet-ſtreet, was brought into the Court of King's Bench, Weſtminſter, for re-publiſhing the North Briton, No. 45, in volumes, and received the following ſentence, viz.

Best possible image.

ſuffer ſix months impriſonment in the King's Bench priſon, to ſtand in the pillory once during that time, to pay a fine of 100 l. and to give ſecurity for his good behaviour for ſeven years, in a bond of 500 l. himſelf, and two ſecurities in 250 l. each.

A few years ago died, advanced in years, at his ſeat in Somerſetſhire, Sir William Pynſent, Bart. who, we hear, has left an eſtate of 2500 l. per annum, and 100,000 l. in money, to the Right Honourable William Pitt, Eſq;

Jan. 24. It is ſaid, that his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York will ſoon be appointed Admiral and Commander in Chief of his Majeſty's naval forces.

It is ſaid the affair of introducing church dignities in North-America will ſoon be inveſtigated.

We are informed the rent-rolls of certain appropriated lands in the provinces of Virginia, Maryland, Pennſylvania, and New-York, holden by former grants from the crown, and which are ſaid to be to the amount of even a princely revenue, will ſoon be laid before an auguſt aſſembly, previous to certain important regulations now upon the carpet.

It is confidently ſaid, certain laws relating to his Majeſty's American colonies are about to be demoliſhed, and others, more agreeable to the genius of the country, and conſtitutional liberty, ſubſtituted in their place.

Jan 25. We hear the number of land forces, including marines, on the Britiſh eſtabliſhment for the current year, will be fixed to 25,000 men.

Some late diſpatches to Weſt Florida, are ſaid to contain orders to the Governor of that province, to inſiſt on certain forts on the Ohio and Miſſiſippi being demoliſhed, which the French had erected laſt ſummer, contrary to treaties, and without their bounds, previous to the Iſle of New Orleans, and its dependencies, being delivered to the Spaniards; and that all Negroe runaways may be given up.

Jan. 26. By letters from Liſbon, by yeſterday's mail, it appears, that what has been advanced in the papers, of Count Lippe being ſent for by his Moſt Faithful Majeſty, is without foundation, there being a good underſtanding between that Monarch and Spain.

Yeſterday morning Mr. Kearſley, bookſeller in Ludgate Street, was brought into the Court of King's Bench, Weſtminſter, for publiſhing the North-Briton, No. 45; and in purſuance of the repreſentation made to his Majeſty by the Secretaries of State, was diſcharged on his own recognizance.

KINGSTON, in Jamaica, January 26.

On Sunday laſt the remains of the once proſperous, gay, beautiful, and almoſt irreſiſtably engaging Miſs TERESIA CONSTANTIA PHILLIPS, were interred in the Churchyard of this Town, unattended by a ſingle friend of either ſex!---While we hope no ungenerous inſult will be offered to her aſhes, we cannot forbear adding our wiſhes, that a cataſtrophe ſo ſtriking and melancholy may prove an advantageous leſſon to many of the ſurviving fair; and convince them, however flattering appearances may be, on their firſt deviation from the paths of rectitude and honour, that no admiration will be laſting, no happineſs ſecure, which is not founded on the Baſis of Virtue.

BOSTON, March 25.

Captain Coleman from South-Carolina, on his Paſſage met with Capt. Munroe, of Piſcataqua, bound to North-Carolina, who had been out 60 Days, and in Want of Proviſions.----Capt. Coleman ſupplied him with what was neceſſary. Captain Munroe had the Day before parted with a Veſſel, likewiſe belonging to the ſame Place, and bound to the ſame Port, which had been out 70 Days.

Yeſterday we had as ſevere a Storm of Snow, Rain, &c. as any the Winter paſt. The Wind began at E. and very high, ſwelled the Tide conſiderably higher than it was the 26th of December laſt (which was higher than for 20 Years before) whereby all the Lumber, &c. were entirely ſwept off ſeveral Wharffs. The Damage done to Wharffs, Stores, and Shipping in this Harbour, will amount to ſome Thouſands.---Many Cellars were filled by the Tide, and much Damage ſuſtained thereby.

April 1. Capt. Hunter informs, that the Captains Logie, Marſhall, Mitchell, Stutſond and Dimond, were all ſafe arrived in England from this Port.---He alſo informs that Capt. Marſhall, eight Days after he ſailed from hence, met with a terrible Storm, in which himſelf, and all the Seamen on Deck, were waſhed overboard, but through the Divine Goodneſs, upon the Return of the next Sea, were all thrown in upon Deck again, except one young Man, Son of Mr. Edgar, of this Town, Silk-Dyer, who was drowned.

Capt. Marſhall, in the ſame Storm, was in Company with a large Dutch Ship from Newfoundland, bound to Europe, who unhappily ſunk in Sight of him, and every Soul on board periſhed, not being able to afford them the leaſt Aſſiſtance.

PORTSMOUTH, (New-Hampſhire) March 25.

Yeſterday we had the moſt violent Storm of Wind and Snow, that has been known for many Years paſt; the Damage ſuſtained by this Storm is very great, having blown ſeveral Wharffs and Warehouſes entirely to Pieces, broke ſundry Veſſels from their Faſts, &c. The Damage ſuſtained by the above Storm to the Wharffs, &c. in this Town, is ſuppoſed to amount to ſome Thouſands.

Capt. Philip Hooker, in a Brig, that was blown off this Coaſt ſome Time ago, and who arrived in the Weſt-Indies, but ſince proceeded on his Voyage to this Port, was caſt away in the above Storm, between Fort and Odiorn's Points, the Veſſel and Cargoe entirely loſt, but the People's Lives are all ſaved.

We hear another Brig from the Weſt-Indies was alſo loſt, with her Cargoe, going into Portſmouth.

NEWPORT, March 25.

By Captain Whipple, from Surrinam, we hear, that 12 Days before he ſailed, a Veſſel from Boſton arrived there, and carried in Capt. John Ingraham and his Men, belonging to this Place, who ſailed from this Port on the 5th of June laſt, for North-Carolina, in the Sloop Harlequin; and came out from thence ſome Time laſt Fall, bound to this Port; but after being at Sea 80 Days, the Veſſel diſmaſted, her Quarter ſtove in, and conſequently in a very diſtreſſing Situation, they were happily relieved by the above Veſſel, though without ſaving any Thing except the Cloathing they had on. It was thought the Sloop could not keep from ſinking 24 Hours. Capt. Ingraham and his Men intended coming home in a Veſſel bound to Boſton.

NEW-YORK, April 1.

Friday the Schooner Lovely Betſey, Capt. Shaw, arrived here in 40 Days from Jamaica. Laſt Sunday Week, off Long-Iſland, Capt. Shaw met with very bad Weather; in which he loſt his Cabooſe, Bolſprit, &c. and the Veſſel was hove on her Beam Ends. The 20th of February, in Sight of the Eaſt End of Jamaica, Capt. Shaw ſpoke with the Ship Charming Molly, Capt. Hubbard, from Newberry, for Jamaica; and laſt Sunday Week he alſo ſpoke with a Schooner from Philadelphia, bound for the Eaſtward, but could not learn the Captain's Name.

Next Day Capt. Prince arrived here from Jamaica likewiſe, in 32 Days, by whom we are told, his Majeſty's Frigate the Venus, and Swift Sloop of War, ſailed for England, in Company with him; that in Lat. 34, 36, Long. 71, 9, he ſpoke with the Snow Polly, Capt. Dougharty, belonging to Philadelphia, from South-Carolina, bound for Goſport, in England, in a very leaky Condition; they continued in Company for three Days, and when they parted Capt. Dougharty intended for the firſt Port he could make on the Continent, as it was impoſſible for him to proceed on his Voyage; and Capt. Prince ſays, that he met with very hard Weather for three Days after they ſeparated,

We are credibly informed, that in the late Snow Storm we had here laſt Saturday and Sunday Week, 20 ſail of ſmall Coaſters were drove aſhore on the South Side of Long-Iſland, between Blue-Point and the Eaſt End; and that it was thought many of them never would be got off.

April 8. By Advice from New-Orleans of the 18th of February, we find that Place was then in Poſſeſſion of the French, the Spaniards were not arrived, nor had they any certain Advices whether they would come at all, or not.

Tueſday laſt Capt. Elder arrived here from the Bay of Honduras; but laſt from the Muſqueto Shore: He informs us, that on the 8th of February, his Majeſty's Sloop of War the Wolfe, commanded by Capt. Hay, arrived there from Jamaica, and brought Orders from Admiral Burnaby, for the Re-eſtabliſhment of all the Baymen at their old Works, in any Part of the Bay of Honduras the moſt convenient for the cutting Logwood; at the ſame Time the like Advice was received at the Bay from the Governor of Meredy; and that the Engliſh ſhould have full Liberty granted them to ſettle Ria Hunda, &c.

Capt. Elder farther informs, that on the firſt of March came to an Anchor off Black-River, on the Muſqueto Shore, Admiral Sir William Burnaby, in the Acteon Frigate, with the Africa, Eſſex, Dreadnought, a Sloop of War, and a Bermuda Sloop, with a Number of Troops on board, bound to Honduras; that the Admiral propoſed to leave the three large Ships at Rattan, and proceed to the Bay in the Frigate, in Company with the Sloop; and as ſoon as he could ſettle Matters at that Place, agreeable to his Inſtructions, was determined to return to Rattan, and from thence to take a Cruize to Penſacola; but where the Troops were to be left, Capt. Elder could not learn.

Thurſday laſt Capt. Seymour arrived here from Bermuda, in 21 Days, having met with extream bad Weather: He ſays, that the Collector at Bermuda had ſeized above 20 Sail of Veſſels belonging to that Iſland, for not bringing proper Certificates, agreeable to the late Act of Parliament paſſed the 15th of November, 1763.

PHILADELPHIA, April 11.

Captain Ruſſell, from Maryland for Philadelphia.----Captain Braley, from New-York for Cape Fear.---Captain Furlong, from the Mount to Newberry.---Captain Finch, from South-Carolina to Port-au-Port.---And Captain Brownlow, from Barbados for Philadelphia.

The Brig Mancheſter, Captain Conyers, from Bermuda for Norfolk, in Virginia, met with moſt violent Gales of Wind, which held him ſeveral Days, and on the Firſt Day of January ſhipped a Sea, which laid down the Veſſel, and the Ballaſt ſhifting, expected every Moment to go to the Bottom; but by cutting away the Main-maſt, Boom, Fore-top-maſt, and Fore-yard, and ſhifting the Ballaſt again, ſhe righted, and, with the greateſt Difficulty, they got back to Bermuda.

The Ship Roebuck, Capt. Smith, and the Snow Anna, Capt. Eyres, both from this Port, are arrived in London.

Beſides the Articles from the London Papers, we have ſeen the Reſolves of the Houſe of Commons, reſpecting a Stamp Duty in the Colonies, 55 in Number; a terrible String of them.

Hamburgh, Jan. 8. The Coronation Dyet of Poland is terminated, without the Proteſtants being able to obtain the preſervation of their rights and privileges; which the protection of the Courts of Ruſſia, Pruſſia, England and Denmark, ſo ſtrongly intereſted in their favour, and even the laws of juſtice and humanity, one ſhould think, would have ſecured to them. Far from leaving them in the enjoyment of liberty, the Dyet would ſcarcely admit of the reading of a project which ſimply concerned the free exerciſe of their religion.

Liſbon, Jan. 1. A few days ago a negroe ſervant being informed that his maſter, Emanuel Cabart, was taken up and accuſed of killing a ſoldier, returned from the woods where he had ſecreted himſelf, voluntarily ſurrendered himſelf into the hands of juſtice, and acknowledged that he alone was guilty of that murder, and that his maſter was innocent. After a thorough enquiry into the affair, the innocence of the maſter appearing, he was ſet at liberty, and the negroe hanged.

This circumſtance will give a ſingular degree of weight to the triple alliance, which is now ſaid to be on the carpet, and which, if it become quadruple, by the acceſſion of another great power, will render the Family Compact a matter of perfect indifference to thoſe who otherwiſe might have looked upon it as an object worthy of ſome attention. CHARLES-TOWN, South-Carolina, March 9.

The particulars we have received of Judd's Friend's expedition to the Miſſiſippi, are as follow, viz. That he and his party in canoes cruized in ſhore below the mouth of the Ohio 46 days, without the leaſt appearance of ſucceſs; but on the 47th a runner diſcovered two battoes, deeply laden, with two men in each rowing up; the Cherokees thereupon lay in ambuſh till the next day at 10 o'clock, till the battoes were within gun ſhot, when perceiving they intended to land at fort l'Aſſompt on, the party crept thither upon their bellies, where as ſoon as the first battoe landed, they rushed upon, and seized two Frenchmen that were in her; the other battoe was carried to the opposite side of the river, turned adrift, and the men in her ran off; the Cherokees pursued, but got only the battoe, and on examining the ladings of both, found they consisted of powder, ball, rum, flour, salt, &c. and were bound for the Shawanese hunting ground. Judd's Friend took as much as his little boats would hold, out of these battoes, threw the rest into the river, and burnt the battoes, then rolled a quarter cask of rum into the fort, which had been evacuated, hoisted his colours, beat in the head of the cask, drank King George's health, and obliged the Frenchmen to do the same, whom he informed were to embark with him for the Cherokee nation next day. When the Frenchmen discovered they were not to be put to death, they informed Judd's Friend, in broken English, and by signs, that about 50 days before, a great number of battoes had gone up the river in two convoys, the first consisted of 20, escorted by 70 Indians, the second of 10, guarded by 30 French soldiers, all laden with arms and ammunition for the Northern tribes of Indians.

Our correspndents add, that all these battoes pass fort l'Assomption, go 10 days more up the Ohio, then enter the Ouabach, which is navigable to numerous nations of Indians; that the afore-mentioned battoes had scarce entered the Ouabach, before a party of Nantugas came into the Cherokees hunting ground, and killed 13 men, and a warrior called the Bullet-Head of Toquo;---that thence it is plain the not garrisoning l'Assomption, and some other posts of as much importance, may often prove of bad consequence to the peace of America; that the news of the Bullet-Head's being killed, had so exasperated the Great Warrior, that he declared he would, in the spring, make the beloved path between the Cherokees and French bloody, and have 10 scalps for every man he had lost; for he found, now the old Governor was gone, the French were becoming rogues, he having promised that no ammunition should be sent to the Northern tribes;---that Judd's Friend returned from his expedition the 27th of January, and was to set out for Fort Prince-George, with the two Frenchmen the 20th instant; --and that this winter has proved the severest ever known in the Cherokee country.
